That’s why we love these new Crafty Cooking Kits... basically they’re a party in a box!

Choose your theme and select a few “chef” related activities and everyone will be unanimous: “this party cooks!” You’ll find all you need to plan a kids’ cooking party ...Kids love creating but even more, they love eating their own creations. Boys and girls will delight in the idea of being chefs for a day. Set them up with a hat and apron for a real hands-on cooking experience. For your next party, try these Crafty Cooking Kids to whip up a delicious bash...
