Rainbow Cookie Kit

What happens when you combine the concept of playdough with cookie dough? Edible monsters? Delicious dolls? Fun-to-eat faces? How about a creative afternoon that leads to a delicious finish. The Crayola Rainbow Cookie Kit is a fun way to introduce the kids to baking (and modelling) at the same time. The kit comes with cookie mix, coloured powders and fun instructions to help you get started. Perfect for rainy days, play dates or bonding time with the kids, we're definitely taking a bite out of this colourful idea. ($10.50, available at www.younameitbaby.com. For other retail locations, visit www.memyselfandus.ca.)
