Bake and Bond with Klutz-Proof Kits

me myself and us complete crafty cooking kits

Toronto (Jul.29.11)

We consider it poor form for the family baking experience to end in tears – and we're talking about our own.

But with our track record of creative disasters, we turn to a failsafe option with the cute and comprehensive baking kits from Me Myself and Us.

With all kinds of options ($11 to $25), everything is taken care of, from baking mixes and icing to decorating options galore. We particularly love making cookie dough in a rainbow of different hues with the Crayola Rainbow Cookie Kit and the Pirate Cupcake Party kept the boys busy for a long time. (The Fairy Cookie set is tucked away until an upcoming birthday party so there's no risk of a mommy meltdown.)

Hankies away – let the cupcake games begin.
